Statement:

To whom it may concern,

Dogs and cats traveling from the South & Central continent of America, including Mexico, Cuba, Haiti and Dominican Republic are by Aruban law (AB 1991 no.100) prohibited to enter.

In cases these animals arrive in Aruba they shall be quarantined and sent back and in cases they are clinically suspicious to any disease shall be euthanized.

The costs will be charged to the owner and/or travel company.

Animals from other countries need pre-approval from the Veterinary Services of Aruba before traveling to Aruba. Questions regarding the import requirements for Aruba can be sent to vetservice@despa.gov.aw.
